Energy Curve is designed and produced exclusively by Flashgift. This Power Bank received the Silver A'Design Award 2016 in the Electronic Devices category for its creative design and stylistic product interpretation. It offers a generously-sized rectangular print area with curved profiles and plastic rubberized body embellished by a polished metal band. Energy Curve can charge two devices simultaneously thanks to its double USB ports and a high energy capacity, from 6.000 mAh to 10.400 mAh.

How do I choose the right capacity for a Power Bank?

To find the Power Bank that is most suited to one's needs, we recommend choosing one with a capacity at least equal to or greater than that of the device to recharge. For example, the battery of an iPhone 8 is 1.821 mAh. A 3.000 mAh power bank enables you to recharge it completely about 1.5 times.

Wireless charging has now become a mainstream technology. Thanks to magnetic induction you simply need to place the smartphone onto the Power Bank surface to allow the wireless charging to take place. Besides, by choosing a wireless Power Bank you will combine the leisure of forgetting about plugs and cables with the convenience of recharging your devices on the go.

See page 38 for a list of smartphones with integrated Qi technology.

Each one of these items is the key to keeping devices charged up. Our Traveler model is compatible in over 150 countries, while the Five USB works as a hub to charge up to five devices simultaneously. Choose among our wide selection and make your logo travel the world with our universal travel adaptors and USB plugs!

MOBILE ACCESSORIES - WIRELESS CHARGERS

There's a new way to recharge the smartphone: wireless and simply through contact. These wireless chargers use Qi standard and work via magnetic induction, with an energy emission of 5W: just put your device down and let it power up. Personalize them with your company logo and try the models with LED printing, a technique that creates layers of color with a relief effect combined with the back-lit LED light.

All our wireless chargers are compatible with iOS and Android smartphones models featuring wireless charging technology. For smartphones which don't support this technology, you can supplement the product with a universal module to connect to the smartphone.

Flashgift is specialized in delivering bespoke design projects across any industry sector, with a special focus on brand licensing, either for the promotional or the retail markets.

We have secured important license agreements with the main licensors in the entertainment industry and thanks to a solid experience in the development of brand licensed collections, we can easily manage the approval process to provide products and packaging compliant with licensors' style-guides, offering a turnkey service.

From product prototyping to manufacturing, we work closely with our customers to create company's original equipment or special retail projects.

The importance of details.

PACKAGING AND ACCESSORIES

The first thing your customers will see and touch is the packaging: let them make the experience of opening your gift special. To help you choose the right packaging we will provide you a list of solutions suitable in shape and size with your selected item. All packaging can be customized with company logos and graphics.

Thanks to the packaging and accessories solutions of the Flashgift catalogue you will make your gadgets truly unique.

Now that you've chosen your promotional product do not forget to look for precious details, as they can make the difference.

Accessories are important details. In our catalogue you will find lanyards, key rings and short chains to add a touch of personality, or you can go for more functional USB cables or other tech components. We will help you choose the right accessories for your selected items. All accessories with a printable surface are customizable with a company logo.
